☛ The Trelynian Medal for Meritorious Service

The Trelynian Medal for Meritorious Service is named after Commandant Trelyn, founder of the Pathfinders, and can only be awarded at the discretion of the Warden of the Dim Forest or the Commandant of the March. This medal is awarded when individuals display the utmost competence in one or more of the directives laid out by Commandant Trelyn at the founding of the Pathfinders.

"Lead a quick, safe retreat. Find a way to infiltrate a camp. Hide the passage of troops. Survive in the wilderness. Choose the most direct route. Find a way out of anywhere, anyplace, anytime. Track an enemy. Find a lost person. All these and more are required of the Gran March Army." - Commandant Trelyn, CY 439.

The PC has been awarded this medal for participating in the location of the Free Band and their hidden lair as well as the capture of the Free Band's captain, Olowyn Aelanthyr. When this medal is openly worn, the PC gains a +5 circumstance bonus to Diplomacy checks when dealing with NPCs at Fort Endurance and Foredge as well as active duty and retired Gran March Army Scouts and Pathfinders.
