

What if the battle of Waterloo had fought in Runebound?

Napolerunik vs Wellingbound

SETUP

Uthuk Setup - Duke of Wellingbound

Draw 4 Command cards and 2 Lore cards.

The Uthuk army muster points on the map equal 54 points.

Daqan Setup - Emperor Napolerunik

The Daqan player is the first player.

Draw 4 Command cards and 2 Lore cards.

The Daqan army muster points on the map equal 60 points.

SPECIAL RULES

All hill hexes are steep ridges and moving up onto or down from cost 2 movement for ordered units.

Active Player VP Step: Active Player earns victory points for each hex containing a Banner Marker that is occupied by a friendly unit. The Uthuk player earns 1 VP and the Daqan player earns 2 VPs.

The active player, earns 1 VP for occupying the majority of ridge (hill) hexes. Majority means at least one more hex than the opposition.

OBJECTIVE

- Each time the first player starts a new turn, check if either player has won the game. A player wins the game if he has 16 or more victory points and has more victory points than his opponent.
- Alternatively, a player wins the game if all of his opponent's units have been eliminated. This happens immediately, regardless of the number of victory points each player has.
