

DESERT

RUINS

CANYONS

A group of coyotes are fighting over a dead body.

You scare them away (-2 ) and investigate the body (+4 ) or turn around and head back to San Andreas (move 1 space towards San Andreas).

As you explore the ruins, you find ornate engravings on the ground. As you reach down to touch them, a dark portal forms and sucks you in. Swap locations with another player.

A group of men come out of nowhere and put a knife to your throat. They agree to let you live if you do them a little favor. Draw a Job card.

DESERT

A traveler sitting alongside the road calls you over. He is dressed in fine clothing and tells you he's looking for hard working people such as yourself. In short, he has a job for you. Draw a job card.

RUNS

You wake up to the sound of chanting. A hooded figure brandishing a knife beckons you to join their circle. You can join them and offer your blood (-1 ) to upgrade a stat twice or watch from afar (-2 )).

CANYONS

An explosion rocks your body and leaves a ringing in your ear. Rocks start falling round you so you sprint out of the gorge (move to an adjacent space) but realize that you lost something (discard an unscored job) along the way.
