IMPII-2 BREAKING POINT

IMPI03 Plight of the Lost Souls

You discovered that a demonic cult has somehow gained the ability to capture souls. For now, they seem only to have used to them for simple extortion, but they can use those souls for much more nefarious purposes. You have promised to keep your eyes open for any similar activities, and to free these innocent souls and destroy what or whoever is responsible for the souls' plight. This starts a major quest.

IMPI04 Favor of van Deesbrock

The house of van Deesbrock in New Sarshel is obliged to you, and can provide shelter, a good word, and any other low cost assistance a noble family could likely supply within the bounds of New Sarshel.
