TYMA2-1 OLD ENEMIES ARISE

TYMA16 Notice of Queen Sisay

Your investigation and defeat of the doppelganger Gertos has earned you the notice of a certain Queen Sisay. Who is this Queen Sisay? You are not sure, but the question will probably answer itself in a short time.

This story award begins the Rising Darkness Major Quest, to be continued in TYMA2-2 and concluded in TYMA2-4.

TYMA17 Dragon Token of House Jalt

For your efforts in finding out what was behind the unification of the kobold tribes in Ruinspoke, you have gained favor and respect within House Jalt.

As a token of his appreciation, Lord Tuanek has given you a finely carved figurine of a small metallic dragon. The figurine is made out of petrified wood, highlighted with gold leaf, and engraved with the word "Jalt" on its outer surface. This charm can be worn on a necklace or a bracelet if you so choose.

This favor grants you a measure of notoriety in Ruinspoke. You are regarded as an ally by Lord Tuanek, and any dragonborn of House Jalt who sees the necklace will regard you in a more positive light. If you garner additional Recognitions of House Jalt, then the amount of influence you receive will increase.

If you are a native of Tymanther, or a dragonborn who is willing to relocate, and you have received other recognitions of House Jalt, then you now find yourself on the right track to receive an introduction to the Lance Defenders or the Platinum Cadre in a future adventure. Perhaps your name will someday even reach the ears of Vanquisher Tarhun himself.
