☛ Pomorian slave: The character listed on this adventure certificate was captured. The character loses twenty TU due to being imprisoned. Making a successful Escape Artist check can reduce this loss. For every one point over DC 20, reduce the Time Unit cost by one. If a character goes into negative time units, that character cannot be played until the Time Units reset, and the amount below zero is taken from the new year's total (Example: If the time unit loss drops you to -3 time units, you cannot play that character until next year, and you start that year with 49 time units remaining instead of 52). Additionally, to aid the Principality of Ulek Triad, please write fltriad@aol.com and let them know what has happened to your character. Please include your real name, RPGA number, character's name, class(es), level and any additional relevant information.
