The Equinoes Specialisecs de Reconnaissance was a small elite unit that never officially existed but was officially disbanded in 1994. Even if truly gone, the men and skills of this unit survive in the recon platoons of the Para-Commando Regiment and 1st Special Recon Company. These personnel were active with other European elite recon units and saw extensive service in former colonies in Africa. Requires Para-Commando package.

The Escadron Special d'Intervention serves as the National CT unit and a conventional SWAT unit within the Gendarmerie. In addition to conventional internal CT missions, they have also been involved in rescuing nationals from African countries, and guarding cash pickups during armored car strikes (probably their most publicized use). Requires Gendarmerie package.
