One of the only black units in the SADF (there may now be more with the return of black rule), with white senior officers and NCOs. This unit was originally formed from ex-Angolan FNLA members, and many recruits still come from this country (language of the unit is Portuguese). These men are well versed at tracking-down and engaging fleeing guerrillas.

NOTE: I have been unable to locate any information on the SADF after 95, so I am unsure of the current status of any of these units. I do know that members of Recce Regiments, SAP, SAP COIN, and SAP STF have all been indicted for crimes during white-rule.
