

THE RED RIVER

Forge proved to be unbreachable to the Uthuk Horde, due to its position on the hills which gave us strategical advantage. However the horde turned West to cross the Red Echo River in order to attack Tamalir itself! Our scouts informed us in time and we rallied to meet them by the banks of the river. Holding the strategical points will be crucial in this battle. We cannot allow them to pass!

SETUP

In addition to the hexes designated for unit deploy for both armies, the Uthuk and Daqan player may place one unit that does not count against the muster points limit to the designated hexes. Then the two factions gain Lore equal to the muster point value of the extra unit their opponent placed.

SPECIAL RULES

Movement Step:

- Whenever an Uthuk unit ends its movement in the building designated as Uthuk Medic, recovers one health (if able).
- Whenever a Daqan unit ends its movement in the building designated as Daqan Medic, recovers one health (if able).

OBJECTIVE

Uthuk player: Reach 16 Vp

Daqan player: Reach 16 Vp
