

Devil Bunny HATES THE EARTH

A Cheapass Board
Game for 2-5 Players

You and your friends are hard-working candy machines in Devil Bunny's factory.

Devil Bunny hates the Earth.

And so he has decided to wreak his revenge upon the Globe by manufacturing a very unsatisfying brand of saltwater taffy.

You must stop him. Even though you are aware that his plan has almost no chance of success.

By luring innocent squirrels into the factory and using them to gum up your own works, you hope to stop Devil Bunny's plan from coming to its unlikely end.

It is a desperate plan, but it seems appropriate given the circumstances.

You Need: pawns for every player, about 50 counters, one distinct counter to represent Devil Bunny, and one 6-sided die.
