

THE DOCTOR LUCKY

Ambivalence Pack

A pair of Doctor Lucky expansion boards for 3-7 players

KILL DOCTOR LUCKY ABOARD THE SS AFGANG

You and your unsavory cohorts find yourselves aboard aboard a non-sinking ocean liner, the SS Afgang, along with that detestable old coot J. Robert Lucky.

With no imminent peril and the uncanny notion that you've been here before, you are once again driven to pursue that most ancient and respected of hobbies, murdering an unsuspecting old man.

And this time, you can close the doors.

SAVE DOCTOR LUCKY FROM THE HOTEL DuBOIS

You and your heroic friends find yourselves in a burning hotel in Atlanta, along with beloved philanthropist J. Robert Lucky.

What a blessing to be able once again to save the old man from the terrors of a burning house, terrors to which the good doctor seems uniquely oblivious.

Thank goodness you are equipped with warm blankets, flotation devices, and other items from an unknown cruise ship.

The Kill Doctor Lucky Ambivalence Pack contains two new boards, one for Kill Doctor Lucky and one for Save Doctor Lucky. To play the Kill Doctor Lucky expansion (SS Afgang), you need the pieces, cards, and rules from the original Kill Doctor Lucky, as well as one additional token for each player. To play the Save Doctor Lucky expansion (Hotel DuBois), you need the pieces, cards, and rules from the original Save Doctor Lucky.
