

Church: I've left the Stained Glass window and front door blank so you can fill in details if you wish. The steeple may be left off, or may be attached simply by gluing it to any side of the church wall. Note that you will have to cut out a divot in the roof wherever you attach the steeple.

