

Other BTRC games

While we have your attention, can we interest you in some of our other offerings present and future?

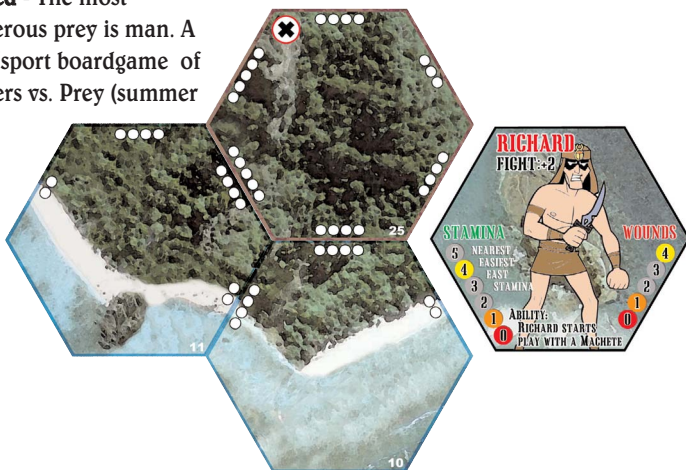

F*ck This! - An extremely rude little card game where players try to complete the most foul-mouthed phrases possible. Not for tender ears or delicate sensibilities.

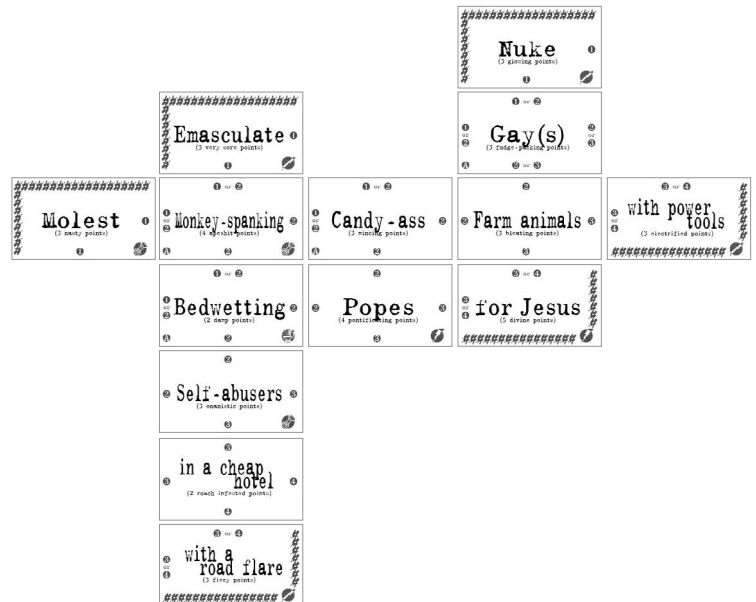

Dumbass - A more family-friendly card game about stupid stunts and the people who sometimes survive them. It's evolution in action...

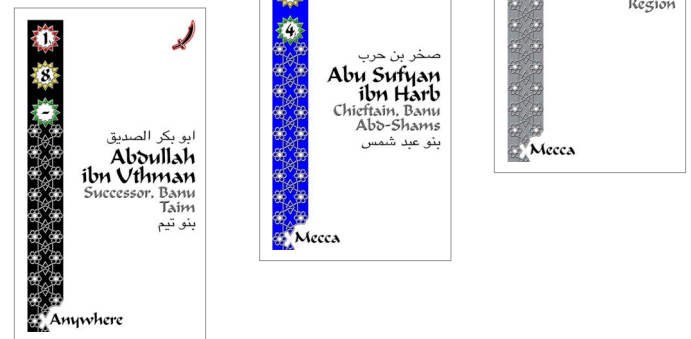

Hunted - The most dangerous prey is man. A bloodsport boardgame of Hunters vs. Prey (summer 2008).

Get information on these and our other titles at www.btrc.net, or see the full BTRC line for sale at RPGnow.com, e23.sjgames.com, YourGamesNow.com, Paizo.com and anyplace else you can download games.

Footsteps of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم - A card game of Islamic history, dealing with the early conquests and conflicts of the first Caliphs (spring 2008).

soft landing - Global warming, peak oil and geopolitics, where each player is trying to save the world...or profit the most before it collapses (summer 2008).
