AZURIA

Empire: the last [legally divine] emperor is in permanent hibernation, following a recent civil war [ended 792 WK]. Now ruled by Regents. The empire comprises 6 independent Satrapies (like duchies); most of which are highly isolationist & suspicious of outsiders. Foreigners should not enter uninvited. Little local foreign trade. Each Satrapy is partitioned into Nomes (like counties). A realm of contrasts: bridges of solid light, floating islands, ships that fly, interplanar trade portal; but feudal serfs forbidden to own money, & naval vessels driven by non-magical winds. Pop 80,000+; with about 400,000 more in distant colonies, military outposts, or dependant states. Major Resources: navy/ trading-fleets with superior vessels, air mages, water mages. #### DRAKWOOD

Waldgraviate: This forest is the major MIDHEIM border, from SYBORITE in the N. to BORDERLAY in the S.E.; but S. of MMHS the forest takes on a dark and twisted nature -- too warped to produce timber. For military reasons, this S. part is the country's premier "barony", viewed as a frontier between the metropolis's bread-basket and its natural enemy and trading partner, AQUILA. Trespassing through Drakwood-in- Hochland is equally fatal, but without such unpleasant forebodings. Major Resources: charcoal; wood rangers; game; herbs; hunting for MMHS's gentry. VIPs: "Princess" Ebola, heiress/ruler, amateur fire-mage; her cousin, B. Scarpia, E&E head of DESTINY's Secret Police in the South. GM MikeP

Eidolon

Capital of ALFHEIM, a dual city: ancient, excessively civilized, exorbitantly expensive. Selkai (the lower city) is on the lake's surface, criss-crossed with canals. Eidolon (the upper city), floating about a mile above Selkai, resembles a circular step-pyramid. All of the real nobs and royalty live up here. The wide, lowest stage of Eidolon has huge trading warehouses and docks for the fleet of Elven flying-ships, which don't visit the Baronies, because they're too politically unstable. Almost anything may be bought at Eidolon including minor magical items (if easily reproducible or desired in quantity -- e.g., armour and weapons) ... but it is all hideously expensive (about 4x Seagate cost): e.g., good boots in Seagate (20sp) are 10 [Selini] in Selkai (8 Seagate sp = 1 silver Selini). GM MartinD, JonoB

EINSBERG

County of AQUILA, the war and consequent loss of the westernmost part of Aquila to lawless wilds have transformed this sleepy hollow into a major stagin area for Aquilan forces. ## Faircourt

Barony: vassal of FOXCOURT, created in 221. VIP: B. Faircourt (Sebastien de Malvallet). GM MartinD

FFENARGHH

Theocracy: 3500 sq. miles of little-known low-lying swamp & varied monsters --the Vapours having caused gross degeneracy in the populace. Rumoured recent improvements. POI: The Reunified Church of St. Theoderick. Lang.: Antiquated Common. GM MartinD

Military castle: recently completed, on the North Road. Overlooks the narrow river-valley that is the demarcation between Grenzstadt and the foreign County of BORDERLAY. GM MikeP

Fort Drakwood

The seat of DRAKWOOD is a military camp, not a castle; the base of operations for Forest rangers and civilian charcoal-burners. It changes location when all the suitable wood has been harvested from a particular place, but the main road remains a permanent feature. GM MikeP, IanW

FOXCOURT

BOWCOURT's N-most county. Resources: warpstone, treachery. Current ruler is still Ct Richard "Tricky Dicky" Foxcourt, despite being reduced to ashes during the Baronies War. Foxcourt is unusual within the BOWCOURT area for usually having patrilineal inheritance. Lang.: Lalangue. VIP: Ct Richard. POI: Warpstone mine where the demon emperor Ahruman is making dwarves; also the vassal Baronies Faircourt and Newcourt. GM MartinD

GIANTLAND

Kingdom on the W. side of the Inland Sea. POI: Cities of Agerheim, Muspelheim, & Niflheim.

Godrock

Barony: small rocky island with high cliffs, treacherous tides, and a ruined abbey. Close to Sanctuary. Recently purchased, freehold, from the D. RANKE. Home to *Serendipity (Lady Godhill). GM MikeP

GRACHT

County: non-militant, bucolic, highland region N. of SYBORITE. Causes nausea in death-aspected persons. Resources: food, beer, mead, forests. Pop: perhaps 5000+ hobbits; 200 humans; 1 giant. City-state: some 500 mi. E of HighCastle, dug into a granite spire (Granite Peak). The Hold descends deeply into the roots of the Alfheim Mtns. A magical tunnel system, with entrances along the length of the mountains, allows one to walk to the Hold in about 3 days from the guild; the Dwarves have had good relations with guild members in the past. Cf: New Misericordia;

South Gate. GM AdamT

Grenzstadt

Barony: created when the recent War broke out and invested on the Captain of MMHS's elite mounted guards. It comprises the former barony of Blutsanger, whose last Baron disappeared about the time the Vampire Ct of BOROVIA was overthrown, and the market-town of Grenzstadt (formerly in MIDDENLAND). Apart from the valley around Grenzstadt itself, the Barony is essentially heathland and waste stretching to the Borovian forest. The Grenzstadt-Borovia Highway and Kreuznung-Knoblauch road are of superb quality, completed in 789 by the [former] Ctss of SYBORITE. Major Resources: agriculture; tobacco; wine; through-traffic; lead; trade.

POI: Fort Boris. GM MikeP

GUJERAT

A tropical region of various small nations ruled by Beys, Rajahs, & similar princelings. Some valleys & subterranean sites controlled by Drow.

Pop.: circa 30,000, 2/3rds Dwarf, 1/3rd Goblin (serfs), almost no other races. City ruled by an Assembly of the leaders of the five city clans. The city is falling into poverty, with large derelict areas and a lot of crime. Citizens (i.e. dwarves) carry weapons openly, goblins may not bear arms. Resources: iron, wood, cheap labour, skilled stone & metal artisans; summer trade routes to Western Marches & ALFHEIM. HighCastle is considered corrupt by other Dwarven societies. Lang.: Dwarven, goblin, some Common. GM RosemaryM

HIGHFASTNESS

Dwarven Kingdom, peopled by Hoar Dwarves; "drink heeps".

Hochland

Barony: on both sides of ridge extending N. from MMHS towards the Alfheim Mtns. Resources: Good timber, horses, wine, farmlands and pasture. Erulein Forest Wardens. The wine of Hochland is predominantly white and exported in barrels throughout the baronies -- a cheap and acceptable plonk, a tafelwein for the masses (as opposed to, say, a '58 Borderlay). Considered excessively rustic by the inhabitants of MMHS. POI: Bergsburg. GM MikeP

Ilsig

Town at the mouth of the River Tain in N. RANKE (cf Tainsfield). POI: Lighthouse (run by Apollo, a solar mage friendly to the Guild). GM KeithS glacially fed freshwater lake, the size of a large sea. Surrounded by many cities.

INLAND SEA

Innesburg

Town (now under military governorship) where the North Road crosses the Baratary river. A former, poor, republican city-state, on windswept moors -- the invasion of which, by AQUILAN & BOWCOURT troupes, was a minor causus belli of the recent wars. Pop: 9,000. Lang.: Folksprach, Common. Resources: ironworks & mines; wool; cheap accommodation for travellers bound elsewhere. VIP: Colonel Radetsky, the military governor. GM MikeP, IanW, MartinD

INNSLEBIN

County: of AQUILA, east of the Ffenargh river, west of BORDERLAY. Mostly rural and just self sufficient, bouyed by having New North Road running through it. POI: Barcela (county seat); Yathow. VIP: Falsham (constable). Lang: common, Folksprach, Lalangue. GM IanW

Town -- see MIDDENLAND.

LUTICE

City & surrounding County: capital of RANITERRE, several miles across, bisected by the River. Large Artisans District; the Royal "Quarter" is an immense Palace (said to exceed 1000 rooms) set in an expansive system of gardens and bordered by several hundred town houses (of varying quality) of the country's premier nobles. Nearby POI: the open parkland of the Royal Hunt; the "public" Woods of Baloney. Pop.: 2M. Lang.: Raniterran. ## LUPINE WOOD

Ward: forms the border between BOWCOURT and BORDERLAY (AQUILA), stretching from ELFANBURG in the east to INNSLEBIN. Very light and magestic woods yet with a sense of doom for those that set axe to tree. The North Road runs through it and travellers who stay on the road need not fear banditry. Pop: Wereelf exiles. Resources: none. POI: Hunting Lodge. VIP: Blazer (elf?), *Thorn. GM IanW

MARGRAVE

Coastal Barony: on the W. border of the FEENARGHH swamp. An unexceptional barony, except for its run of bad luck with off-plane invasions, necromancers, and general carnage. GM AdamT

MIDDENLAND

District: the major source of food & wine for MMHS; the remnants of the original "home county" of the Grafs of MMHS. Administered, from Karlheim, by the Landvogt (like Sheriff) & his Stewards -- keenly sought, juicy appointments for politically ambitious MMHS gentry. The river valley from Kowdorf to Grenzstadt is extensively farmed, but the rest of the district is mostly waste or pasture. The wines of the Middenland include both red ("dry sack") and white (usually "Hoch"). GM MikeP

MIDHEIM

Artificial name, used by foreigners, to describe the independent "County" ruled by the Grafs of Mittelmarkhauptstadt -- i.e. MMHS; & the MIDDENLAND; DRAKWOOD; Hochland; and Grenzstadt. GM MikeP, IanW

Mittelmarkhauptstadt (MMHS)

Grafdom: prehistoric, defensive city strategically placed on the North Road, predominantly carved out of a volcano-like spur. MMHS was the capital of the Margraves of Mittelmark whose outerlying land have since been incorporated into the Duchy of AQUILA. What's left is called MIDHEIM. Much that the city sells is very expensive (and occasionally worth it). Paradoxically, MMHS has both a strong local culture and a cosmopolitan world-view. The city's wealth and spectacular festivals have engendered a sense of "High Society"; before the War many petty nobles and merchant princelings would winter in MMHS, if they could afford to, usually from the Harvest-festival to the Spring-festival. During the war, the city thrived -- as a nexus for spies, arms-dealers, and the better sorts of refugee. Major Resources : accommodation & trade (especially in luxuries); skilled craftsmen & guilds; medicinal baths; magical university; good living; history; some technological innovation; etc. POI: Cathedral; Baths; MUMS; shops; Opferhaus; Grafsmund. Warning: some streets are too steep for wheeled transport. Lang.: Reichspiel. VIP: Graffin Flavia, Dr F. Einstein the "healer", *Isel Eth, etc. GM MikeP, IanW,

MMHS

MORDEAUX

Archbishopric: vassal of BOWCOURT. An unusual area within BOWCOURT where the temporal authorities are drawn directly from the Western Church. The area is still essentially feudal in its government with chapter houses holding land from abbots, who in turn hold it from Archbishop Mordeaux. GM MartinD

Mulberry

Barony: vassal of BOWCOURT. The current B., Henri de Mulberry is known to be a Shaper. His twin brother, Sir William (Guillame), one of the greatest modern philosophers & an expert on theoretical magic, is a well-known advisor to the royal court (W. KINGDOM). Both brothers are somewhat eccentric [fancy term for unbalanced]. GM MartinD

The warm fire-region of GIANTLAND.

NARBY NORADIN

? Lang.: Dwarven?

NEVER

Duchy: One of the two major river valleys of RANITERRE; a narrow stretch of extensively farmed land lying uneasily between the Arid Desert & the Mountains of Madness. There are many military forts on the desert's edge and the locals are often in combat with various tribes of desert-dwellers. Neverlanders are traditionally impulsive, vicious and unforgiving; they make deadly foes and dangerous allies. Pop.: 6M; some dwarves (especially in the Dread Duke's service). Lang.: Raniterran. VIPs: the Dread Duke, the Cardinal. GM MikeP

New Misericordia

Town at the entrance of a glacial valley which is snow-bound for most of the year. There are several Hill Giant steeds along the valley. The giants are friendly, mostly hunters/trappers, and they also breed mammoths. Langs. (in order of prevalence): Common, Dwarven, Hillgiant & a trading tongue which is a combination of all of the other three. Pop.: about 70% human; 20% Dwarves; 10% hill giant; very few inhabitants of other races. Cf: South Gate; Granite Peak Dwarven Hold. GM AdamT

Newcourt

Barony: vassal of FOX COURT, in its N.E., and into the foothills of the Alfheim Mtns. The name is a common corruption of the Lalangue Nuit Coeur (loosely tr. as Heart of Darkness). The area has a very poor reputation; many strange beasts are said to inhabit the mountainous areas. GM MartinD

New North Road

A recent development that links Bowcourt directly to Aquila, via INNSLEBIN and Innesburg -- in other words missing out MMHS. POI:...

Newhaven

Niflheim

The cold, N-most fog-bound region of GIANTLAND.

NORDEN

(Warning there is also a plane of this name -- no relation)

North Road

A fantastic road several yards wide and mostly straight, that remains hard even in winter and has survived since antiquity, probably the oldest trade-route in the baronies. All woods have been cleared to a distance of one furlong from the road. Good inns and towns are conveniently spaced along the road. The North Road runs from Sanctuary to DRAKENSBURG, and beyond. ## RANITERRE

Kingdom: large, populous country with a swash-buckling dueling-mad gentry. Very poor -- in provincial cities, foreign gold coins are sometimes mistaken for coppers. Bad wine. Magic is normally only taught through The Church, a confederation of many demon-cults. Pop.: 20M ; some hobbits; sporadic Drow politely supposed by all to be Erulein; rare Dwarves (usually found in NEVER). Most locals live in small rural villages; but the Capital, LUTICE, is almost impossibly populous (2M). All the other cities are very much smaller -- but still large, by Baronies' standards (@10,000+). The Country has a rapid heliograph/semaphore system.
