Relics of the Ancients

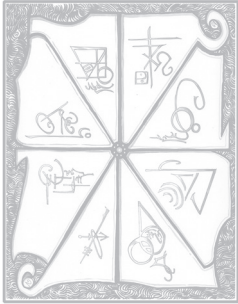

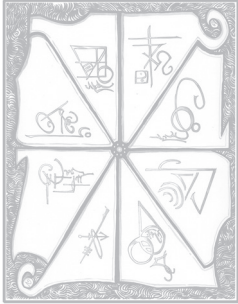

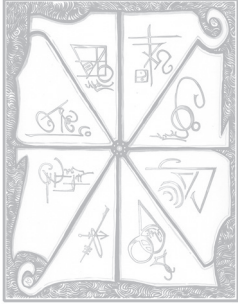

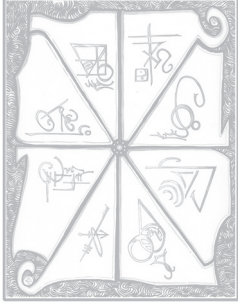

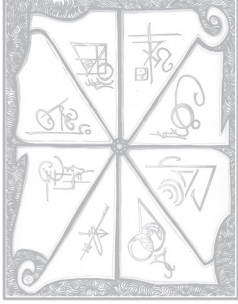

The Purple Planet is death heaped upon the eras that passed before. As you encounter relics of the ancients, use these pages to record the effects of the runic keys and the properties of each relic. A grayed version of the rune chart is included for each relic, with space for you to note the effects of pressing various runes. At the end, blank spaces are included for other relics beyond just those pictured here.

Creatures of the Purple Planet

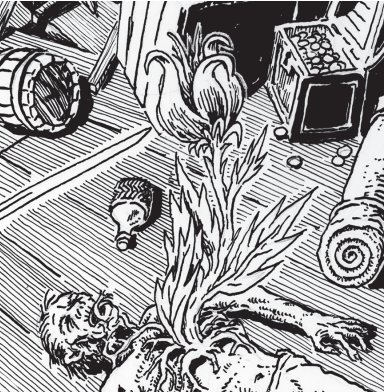

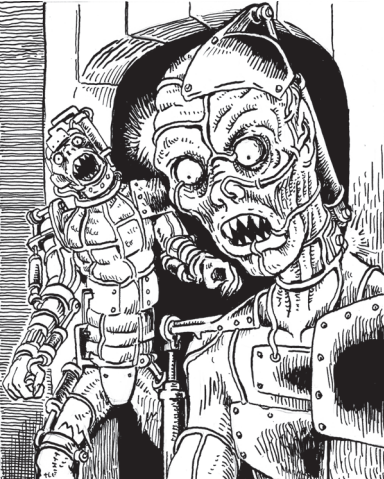

The Purple Planet is populated by many strange beasts. Use this space to record descriptions and battle logs for the creatures you encounter. Not all the creatures of the Purple Planet are shown here...but many of them are. Ask your judge to identify each creature as you encounter it. At the end, blank spaces are included for other creatures you encounter.
