

CHURCH OF PELOR

Symbol: A stylized sun face

Background and Goals: The Church of Pelor is a common faith in the Viscounty of Verbobonc, much beloved by the common folk of the land. A member of the governing Council of Abbots, the followers of the Sun Father, and the recently ascended Shield Maider, form a strong and benevolent flock. Working across the Viscounty to promote health and defense, members of this church receive a welcome reception in the local areas they visit.

Because Pelor's clerics spend a lot of time tending to the sick and providing for the basic spiritual needs of their communities, they attract a number of earnest, forthright youths who want to make the world a better place. Followers of Pelor believe that protecting those that cannot protect themselves is one of their deity's most important values, and they go out of their way to help the needy in his name. Pelor's followers undertake the task of healing whenever and wherever they can—whether that healing is physical or spiritual. Prayers often take the form of first-person affirmations, such as "I am merciful, just as the Sun of Mercy shines on me."

The faith of Mayaheine is strongly allied with the Church of Pelor, and followers of that deity are welcomed as members.

Members: Most members of the Church of Pelor are clerics. A cleric is defined as any character with the majority (over 50%) of non-prestige class levels in the Cleric, Healer, and/or Paladin class. All eligible characters may become Congregants or Novitiate, however only those characters that receive divine power from Pelor or Mayaheine are eligible to rise to the rank of Priest. Only clerics of Pelor are eligible to rise to the rank of Canon.

Type: Religious

Scale: 9 (regional [Verbobonc])

CHURCH OF PELOR

MEMBERSHIP OPTIONS

Members of the Church of Pelor are eligible to join one of the groups associated with the Church. There is no requirement to join a group, however you may only be a member of one group at any given time.

Circle of Light

The Circle of Light is a sect consisting of druids that revere Pelor in his primal nature as the sun god and the nourishment he provides to plants with his sunlight. Where members of the mainstream clergy of Pelor focus their efforts in cities and on those in need of healing, members of the Circle of Light are often found in rural hamlets and more woodland settings, where they use their skills to help bring the local community in harmony with nature. Their skill at concocting herbal remedies for some of the hazards of nature makes Pelorian druids a welcome addition to any community.

Members of the Circle of Light do not use titles as do mainstream members, but are otherwise identical except where noted below.

- Associated Skills: The following skills are Associated with the Circle of Light: Heal, Knowledge [Nature], Profession [Herbalist], and Survival. These replace the Associated Skills listed under Novitiate.
- Druids: Druid levels replace cleric and paladin levels for purposes of gaining rank within the Circle of Light.
- Dwelling: You receive a dwelling, however this dwelling never improves past a Residence [Simple House].
- Specialized Training: You receive access to Spontaneous Rejuvenation<sup>PH2</sup> instead of Spontaneous Domain Casting<sup>PH2</sup>

Foundation of Salvation

First established in Greyhawk City in CY584, the Foundation of Salvation is a charitable institution dedicated to caring for the hungry and those displaced by war. Since that time, branches have appeared in many major cities, including Verbobonc City. As a port city along the Velverdyva River, Verbobonc City has its share of such people, and the Foundation of Salvation exists to help them find a place to so they can get back on their feet.

Members of the Foundation tend to focus more on social endeavors rather than combat, and are ever on the lookout for those that can provide charitable services to their charges—whether by providing spellcasting, a donation to a needy family, or simply helping out around the local chapter.

As members of the Church of Pelor, those in the Foundation of Salvation follow the same hierarchy as their mainstream brethren, except where noted below.

- Associated Skills: The following skills are Associated with the Circle of Light: Diplomacy, Heal, Knowledge [Local-VTF], and Sense Motive. These replace the Associated Skills listed under Novitiate.
- Donations: Members of the Foundation of Salvation are always seeking those that can donate time, talent, or treasure to those in need. Once per adventure, you must actively solicit assistance from a non-player character with sufficient financial means to provide a donation. Should your solicitation result in a donation of 1,000 gp or more, you receive +1 Affiliation point for each 1,000 gp donated. Failure to solicit funds from an non-player character capable of donating money to the order results in a -1 to your Affiliation score.
- Dwelling: You receive a dwelling, however this dwelling never improves past a Residence [Simple House].
- Hospitaller: Levels in Hospitaller<sup>CD</sup> are treated as levels in Radiant Servant of Pelor<sup>CD</sup> for purposes of earning Affiliation Points.
- Lifestyle: Because of the charitable nature of your work, you avoid luxury and other extravagance and instead seek a more austere lifestyle. Should you ever take Lifestyle [Rich] or Lifestyle [Luxury], the bonuses you receive are instead treated as penalties due to the hypocrisy of your actions.
