PLAYER HANDOUT #4

Let it be known that the owners of Owlbear Lodge and their customers may freely hunt game in the Neverwinter Wood as an act of conservation and population control. All game may be hunted except for the giant white ferret. This beast is rare and magical and is off limits. Hunting this creature voids this contract and may result in negative actions against Owlbear Lodge, its owners, and its customers.

All agreed and signed,

Herka,

Good luck with the upcoming great white ferret hunt! Let's hope that pesky druid doesn't catch wind of it.

I'm headed to Chult soon, to recruit some new customers. I think I might go on a Tyrannosaurus Rex hunt while I'm there!

My dearest Nolan,

I am so excited about the wedding. To think that you will be my husband takes my breath away.

You've been so kind and good to me, giving up your time to help me with various things that always seem to come up and ruin your plans. That's why I wanted to make our engagement special for you, by taking you on this hunting trip. Also, I commissioned this crossbow and set of bolts for you. To forever remind you of this special trip.

Happy hunting, my love!
