

ORC-BOSS

DESTINY PLAYBOOK

You have proven to be the strongest, biggest, and most cunning of all orcs.

REQUIREMENTS

To become the Orc-Boss,
you must earn the Fellowship of the Orcs.

The Orc-Boss starts with Orc Smash!

ORC SMASH!

You can smash through any furniture, wooden doors, simple walls, barricades, weaklings, cowards, or halflings between you and where you wish to go, all without rolling. You do not harm any living things you knock aside using this Move, you just get them out of your way.

ADVANCEMENT

When you Level Up, choose one Advancement from either this list or from your Basic Playbook, then mark it. You may only choose each option once.

- Take the Orc's Core Moves (The Fires of Industry and Dishonor Before Death). If you already have them, instead increase one of your stats by +1, to a maximum of +3.
- Take an Orc Custom.
- Take an Orc-Boss Custom.

CUSTOM MOVES

☐ DEFIANT TO THE LAST

When you are Taken Out, you don't go down until the end of the scene. You can continue to act as you please, and further damage against you does nothing.

This does not stop the Overlord from making you An Offer You Can't Refuse.

☐ EVIL'S HEART

Your attacks are Necrotic.

When you Keep Them Busy through melee combat, you may break your weapon to damage them.

☐ INFINITE STRENGTH

You can pick up and lift anything and anyone you can get a firm grip on. Anything and anyone you hold can be used as if they were a weapon with the tags (Melee, Thrown).

When you break a weapon you hold to power one of your moves, if that weapon is a person, you deal damage to them instead of breaking them.

☐ SIXTH SENSE

You always know when you are being watched or followed.

When you pause to pay attention, you always know exactly how many people are around you and roughly what direction from you each of them is. This sixth sense will detect people in hiding and even invisible or incorporeal presences, although not their exact location.

☐ SLASH AND BURN

When everything around you is chaos and fire, you are fill with Hope.
