The scenario

Don Cole had been working this case for three weeks, and now he just wanted to be off of it. His feet hurt and he needed a drink. He liked the job and he was good at it. There were times, however, when he didn't enjoy the things he had to do. This looked to be one of those times.

After all this time he had found the kidnappers, Holed up in a house at the edge of town. He stopped to call for help and moved in to keep an eye on them. He could make out three of them sitting calm as you please on a car that had more holes in it than a piece of swiss cheese.

He pulled out his trusty .38, but on one side of the house stood a Tough with a tommy gun and on the other a pretty girl with a derringer in her hand. Using the trees for cover, he got as close as he dared and called to them to drop their weapons. This was going to be one of those days . . .

LK:50, HP:19

Weapons : .38 revolver in a shoulder holster, Brass Knuckles , whistle, and matches.

Don is not overly brave; he will hold his own in a fight. But risk his neck to for $10.00 a day was not something he looked forward too.

He just wants to get the girl back and get paid. Two thousand bucks was a lot of money no matter how you split it!

MARIA KERRY - Big Ben's gun moll (age 22, Black) Level 1 Criminal

Record: None

MS:41 , AG :78, 08 :38 , DR :56 , PR:8, LK:47, HP:20

Weapons : .22 Derringer (two shot)

Maria has been with Big Ben for years and is sort of bored with it all. She seeks situations like this for the thrill of it. She is the most likely one to begin battle, but thinks Don is kinda cute.

BIG BEN - Syndicate Boss (age 32, Irish)

MS:77, AG :46, 08:62, DR:54, PR:9, LK:06, HP:18

Bernie is holding the tommy gun, but knows there are no bullets in the thing. He will try to bluff his way out of the situation by moving into the house and talk from there.

LONG FACE Mc GEE -Second- in-Command (age 49, Irish) Level 5 Criminal Record: Frank McGee . Wanted in lakefront city for Extortion, Arson, and Disturbing the peace. Served 25 years in State Penitentiary. He will not surrender and won't go without a fight. He has spent too much time in the joint to go back.

Aliases : Kelly the killer, and Morte the mortician.

Weapon : .38 revolver in his coat pocket and blackjack in side pocket.

Carries $82.00 in small bills.

Should you need more Thugs to even out the score, you can have one inside for each additional PC. Use the thug stat in the GangBusters Rule Book.

Referee's section

The three will calmly talk to anyone who approaches them and claim the guns are self-defense. They will not allow themselves to be stripped of weapons and will fight it out with anyone who tries. The tommy gun is out of ammunition but may be used to bluff. Naturally, help will not come until the referee decides one side or the other needs it.

It is perfectly possible for either party to talk their way out of a direct confrontation; but McGee won't give in if asked to surrender. He will run inside and hold the Girl hostage. He hopes that if he does this he can cut a deal for his escape.

If all else fails and it comes to shooting, turn to the "Gunfight modifiers table" in your GANGBUSTERS™ game. We will assume that Don is behind a tree with only his head and gun hand showing. The three are in plain sight, and any others are inside the house.

If anyone uses the cars or trees as cover, the others must subtract 30 percentage points from their "chance to hit" scores. In the advanced rules, the "Hit location and injury chart" is used. Only those shots that successfully strike and then rolled for the Head, Right Shoulder, Right Arm, and Right Hand will influence the character. All others will miss completely even if a successful strike is made. The Penetration options can be used from page 58 of the rule book if the player characters, makes attempts at moving out of cover.

In the event that Maria, Ben, and McGee are used as NPC's, consider; in the first round of shots from Don, the referee simply uses his Agility Score for the percentage needed to hit. From then on, the referee must determine what all three of the NPC's are doing. Perhaps in the second round, Maria ducks into the car, making her a -30 to hit. McGee begins running for the house while reaching for his gun, making him a "Running target " and a -20 to hit. Big Ben drops behind the partial cover of the car, making him a -20 to hit. All of these are subtracted from the Agility Scores. In the next few rounds of battle, some or all of the three will fall under the "Hit location and injury chart" if struck

There are many ways to extend this scene into other aspects of the GANGBUSTERS™ game rules. They could drive off in a car, necessitating a car chase of some length; weapons could be made available to Tom or the group from cars in the area; police and other criminals could easily be brought into the action, all of which could make for a very enjoyable 30 to 60 minutes of game play.

This scenario is great for introducing new people to the game. And getting a taste of the gunfight rules.
