

CHECK STEPS EXAMPLE

- The Slinger says they attempt sneaking past someone.
- The Maestro decides this requires a Check, meaning the Slinger must “Go Fish!”
- The Slinger asks the Maestro or the Gun if they have a card—but they don’t.
- The Slinger draws from the Deck, completing a Pair and placing it in their Cache.
- The Maestro says the Check is Hard, setting its Cost at 11.
- The Slinger pays with a 7-Pair adding their Light On Your Feet 2 for a total of 9.
- The Gun aids by Paying a Single 2, tying their total with the Cost.
- The Maestro takes the normal success, moving the narrative forward.

BARGAINS

If a player lacks Pairs, can’t pay a Check’s Cost—or doesn’t wish to in order to retain Pairs for future Checks or for narrative reasons—it becomes a Bargain.

If the player has a Face Card to give the Maestro, the check is a baseline success.

If they cannot or don’t want to, it becomes a Blind Pay resulting in Failure or Limited Success with complications. A Bargain’s Blind Pay is never a standard Success—it always comes with complications.

FACE MOVES

King: A symbol of luck used to succeed any Check including the other player’s.

Queen: Thrive in every environment and can be Paired with any (non-face) Single matching it to produce a Pair.

Jack: Know a good deal when they see it, play one any time to draw 3 cards.

Aces: Always good to have up your sleeve, paying with one is a Major Success with an extra effect from this list:

- You gain extra insight, pose a question to the table and collaboratively answer.
- You gain or maintain the upper hand, determined collectively.
- Your result improves remarkably, describe how.

BRAIDS

You gain Braids by acting according to your Agendas and Runes, completing noteworthy tasks, doing cool shit and failing checks.

You always gain a Braid when failing a check.

The Maestro may give you Braids as they see fit. (If GM-less, give each-other Braids when characters lean into their Runes and Agendas).

THE GUN

You are trapped in a body other than your own: cold, furious steel of violence and judgement. It is not your home, and you may dislike it, but you occupy it. You’re tied to a Slinger, a wanderer seeking something. Perhaps they’ll help you find your own desires.

Being a Gun is strange. It’s almost isolating, being unable to affect the world normally like when you had a body. You can move things, and speak, but it’s still strange.

As The Gun, you’re an extension of the Slinger’s arm, executor of your joined wills and tied to the world’s remaining magic in a manner that makes you capable of manipulating it for your own ends.

I’M AN AGENT OF:

TRICKERY
You invert the world with your Connection
Pick a random card from the deck, causing chaos. Higher card values are beneficial, lower values turn the chaos against you. If a face card is drawn, put it at the bottom and redraw.

FURY
You channel your rage, birthing flame where you choose.
Pick a random card from the deck. The card’s value is a pool you divide between targets and distance (in feet): Targets nominated begin to supernaturally heat. If flammable, they ignite If a face card is drawn, put it at the bottom and redraw.

PEACE
You surround someone, or something, with your protective magic.
Pick a random card from the deck. Its value is how many seconds the (visible) target is shielded from any damage. If a face card is drawn, put it at the bottom and redraw.

STATS

Assign 2, 1, and 0 to each.
Add your Stat value to the value of what you pay for Costs and Checks.
