MONSTER LIST BY AREA

The following list is not comprehensive; creatures can be found in many locations. The listed locations are areas where the monsters are well-known or regarded as ubiquitous and/or important.

Note that many creatures found in the Underworld can be found in ruined castles, cities, and even villages, as the Underworld often connects to these areas and the monsters therein enjoy hunting outside their normal domain. Many monsters also found in the Underworld are not noted as such, as most monsters, and even many human and demi-human races, make their home in the Underworld.
