Eldoria

BLOODMANE

The Huatakinn or Bloodmane, as they are called by the people of Llan, are fierce warriors of the Barren Plateau. Their villages lie in the Llanish Highlands and have the delightful custom of washing their hair in the blood of their freshly killed enemies. This ritual is based on the belief that the life-force of their enemies is contained within their blood and by running it through their hair, they will grow stronger, having absorbed their essence.

The Bloodmane currently have peace treaties in place with the Guilds of Llan but, every so often, some young warriors take it upon themselves to raid outlying communities of the Midlands.

Their culture has many similarities with that of the American Indians and they are renowned marksmen with the bow. They worship a variety of totems which have aspects of animals (the wolf, the bear, the cougar etc.) and it is thought that this practice originated from contact with the Hirathian druidical Order of the Wyrn, who were known to have explored the north-western regions of Eldoria around 1100R.

Bloodmane are semi-nomadic hunter-gathers. They have established settlements and burial sites on the Barren Plateau and when extreme weather forces them to range south into the Llanish Midlands, they will disassemble their larger structures and store them in hidden pits, so they can quickly rebuild their villages when they return in Spring.

For more detail see Encyclopedia Eldoria.

Brief Descriptions

Llan (Country)

Location: Eldoria

Llan is a heavily forested land with large tracts of unexplored territory to the north and west. Llan has been devastated by past civil wars and was occupied by the Sardellan Empire. The country has recently prospered under the control of the mercantile guilds who have largely usurped political control from the old noble houses.

Llan is divided into three districts, the Lowlands of the east, where the majority of the larger towns and cities can be found; the Midlands, a frontier community that has only been gradually opened up over the past 200 years and the Highlands, claimed by barbarian tribes and some scattered communities of Half-Elves and Gnomes.

Because the Midlands of Llan have always been heavily forested and sparsely settled, many folk claim that sylvan creatures and fey folk still dwell deep in the woods there. This is supported by old stories and traditions still observed in the Lowlands. It was said that the Faarsown (Gnomes) once lived on the fringes of Human settlement in the east of Llan up until the time of the Great Civil War. They were fascinated with simple Human devices and would furtively visit Human homes in the dead of the night. When the east has beset with strife, the Gnomes migrated to the Midlands and beyond. The Lowlanders of Llan still pay homage to the Gnomes by displaying brightly painted statuettes of Faarsown in their homes and gardens.

It is said that there is a hidden kingdom of Elves somewhere in the Highlands of Llan. There are Guilders wanting to hire able men and women to protect their more precious shipments of gold and silver and political intrigue in the form of a separatist movement called the 'Acorn Rebels', who are fighting for the Midlands to break away from the rest of Llan.

The Shadow Forest (Area - Llan)

Location: Highlands of Llan, Eldoria

In the highlands of Llan, situated between Jurgenstown and the edge of the Bitter Holz plateau, is a wilderness area called Shadow Forest. This unspoilt forest is on the edge of the known maps, remote with only a handful of humans. Shadow Forest is mostly inhabited by gnomes, elves and fey creatures.

To the north of the forest is Bramblethatch Delving, is a remote gnomish village. The inhabitants of this village have never seen a human and when travelling long distances use badgers as steeds. In the centre of Shadow forest is a clearing and long abandoned keep. The closest human now resides in Cinerfern Farm to the south.

Bramblethatch Delving is a picturesque Gnomish village. The gnomes here have a passion for marbles and many fierce marble competitions are played during the year.
