ROLEPLAYING GAME COMPATIBLE

A SMUGGLER'S STORY

Spoony Jawz wasn't always a military goblin; in fact, he wasn't always Spoony Jawz. Hero of a thousand border clashes and pride of the Goblinvania airfleet, the famous commander started life as a smuggler named Bur Snuffbucket. Famed for his luck, youth, and propensity for picking fights with monstrous citizens far larger than himself, Captain Snuffbucket should have had a long and rewarding career as a purveyor of illicit cargo. But no amount of luck is a match for treachery and the rival Chainz cartel didn't tolerate independent competition; they were only too happy to tip off the authorities—Bur's ship was captured, his cargo raided, and the captain himself remanded to royal custody.

Snuffbucket would have died that day, and the world at large believes he did. But Engineer King Vokrix can spot talent, and he offered his prisoner a choice: execution, or a life in his service (and a chance at revenge) with the newly founded air force.

It wasn't much of a choice.

Officially, Bur Snuffbucket was hanged by the neck until dead, then dismembered and nailed to no less than five city gates as an example to Goblinvania's criminal classes. On the same day a young cadet named Spoony Jawz enlisted at Smastrik Airfield. He affected a mustache and an eyepatch, and if he shared a passing resemblance to a famous smuggler no one remarked upon it.

It was a goblin's life in the modern army, and Spoony set about proving himself. He earned his wings as a lowly grunt, and he earned respect by smashing academy records. Over the course of his training Spoony emerged uninjured from no less than nineteen crash sites, more than enough to make him officer material. No one could walk away from a burning crater quite like Spoony, and the younger cadets took to calling the academy Smash Trick Airfield in honor of the little goblin's exploits. Graduation came early for the talented pilot, and Spoony has been climbing the ranks ever since.

In the years afterwards, Captain Spoony acquitted himself admirably chasing blockade runners off of Ominara and striking out against the Mountain Bombers whenever they pop up. However, his real claim to fame lay in the uncharted aeries of the Drathfire Mountains. Unpredictable storms and vengeful dwarves haunt those peaks, and his fellow officers called him mad. Common wisdom held that the dragons were all gone, their nests long since looted, and that nothing lay among those hills but windshear, dwarven cannons, and ruin. Not even the indestructible Spoony Jawz could walk away from that!

But Spoony was always lucky. Twelve days after sailing into the Drathfires he came out again with only barely enough crew to keep his ship aloft—with a small glittering lizard perched upon his shoulder. He never spoke of the details of his voyage, nor would his crew, but Spoony Jawz was the only successful Egg Hunter in a generation. Spoony named the tiny dragon Gimmick, and she's been fast friends with the goblin since her hatching, serving as familiar, boon, and friend. Of course, being one of the only dragons under Goblinvanian control, the tiny Gimmick elicits untold jealousy from the School of Vile Shadows and its High Mage Grukorii Felltongue, who longs for a chance at dragon taming.

Now Zeit Commander of the Goblinvania Air Force, Spoony has every right to refuse his rival; he never lost his love of sticking it to the larger monstrous folk, and the High Mage turns such a lovely shade of green when she's envious. Court politics, however, are little more than an idle diversion for the Zeit Commander—the Chainz cartel is still out there, and Spoony still wants his revenge.
