Noble Sacrifice

The Eye

The hero named above gave his or her life in an effort to destroy the darkstaff. In recognition of the valiant, selfless sacrifice, the hero's name has been permanently inscribed on a plaque at the base of Reidi Artom's Statue in Gadrin. The plaque reads as follows: For the love of their home and the protection of innocents, these individuals gave their lives. There can be no nobler sacrifice.

Ultimate Sacrifice

The Eye

The hero named above became one with the Force in the act of destroying the darkstaff. In so doing, the hero's Force essence permanently merged with the Heart Tree, the source of protection and life for all of Cularin. The hero will be able to aid in the teaching of countless generations of Tarasin, or can recede into the background, as he or she wishes. But none among the Tarasin will ever forget the sacrifice made.

The Eye

The hero named above took action when the Tarasin decided the time had come to hide many of their Force-users beneath the sacred Heart Tree. You may use the space below to describe your character's actions (for example, "Headed for a swampy planet to lay low for a while"), with the obvious caveat that you cannot change, through your actions, any of the events in Star Wars Episodes IV-VI, nor can your hero betray the nature of the Heart Tree and what it hides. Beyond that, the ending of your hero's story is completely in your hands.

The Eye

The hero named above defended Cularin at great personal risk, always striving to keep the forces of darkness from overwhelming the system.

These efforts, while they may not be recorded on Coruscant, will never be forgotten on Cularin.

Deep within the jungle, the hero's name has been permanently inscribed in the Tarasin Book of Memories, wherein are recorded all those who have protected Cularin and its secrets.

Whatever happens in the galaxy, whatever the future may hold, the individual named on this cert will forever be remembered as a true Hero of Cularin.
