

The Northern Godi

Additional Class for Swords & Wizardry

The Northern Godi

The godi (plural "godar") is a northern cleric and servant of the northern gods. This class is identical to the cleric presented in the Swords & Wizardry Core Rules (S&W p.2-3), with the addition of a few spells and rituals which allow the godi to master the mystical powers of Runes. Although the whole of the nordic pantheon is venerated by the godi, these clerics will usually focus their worship to one particular god. These gods include, but are not limited to, Odin, Thor, Frey, Freyja, Hel, and Loki.

Additional Godi Spells

The following 3 spells are additional spells provided by the northern gods to their priests. These spells are available only to the Godi class, although a GM may allow a cleric converted to the worship of the northern gods to access them.

Berserker (Godi)

Level 2

Range: Touch

Duration: 10 rounds

The recipient of this spell (either the godi, or another) becomes infused with a berserk battle-lust. For the following 10 rounds, those under the influence of a Berserker spell gain an extra attack each round. At the end of the spell's duration, the target is exhausted for 3 turns. During this exhaustion period, all attacks upon the the target receive a +2 bonus. The target of the spell is also too exhausted to properly use a shield (adjust AC accordingly). In addition, this exhaustion reduces the target's Move by half.

Odin's Spear (Godi)

Level 2

Range: 150ft

Duration: Immediate

A magical spear flies where the caster directs, with a range of 150ft. There are two versions of this spell, and your GM will specify which version is available in his campaign: in the first version, the godi must roll to hit the target with a +1 bonus to the roll. The divine spear inflicts 1d6+1 points of damage. In the second version of the spell, the spear hits automatically, doing 1d4+1 points of damage.

The godi may cast an additional two spears for every 5 levels of experience. Thus, at fifth level, the godi is able to hurl 3 spears, and 5 spears at 10th level.

Thor's Hammer (Godi)

Level 2

Range: Touch

Duration: 10 rounds

When cast upon a war hammer, this spell adds a +3 bonus to Hit and damage. If cast on any other weapon (including fists) the bonus is +1. Weapons affected by a Thor's Hammer spell give off a magical glow and may damage creatures only affected by magic weapons.

The Problematic Resurrection

Although godar, like regular clerics, have access to life restoring spells such as Raise Dead and Resurrection, these spells are rarely cast upon valorous heroes.

The godar believe heroic fighters, clerics, and dwarves who die gloriously in combat will be taken by the Valkyries to Valhalla. This is a great honor, and because of this belief, a godi is very particular with regards to who he will bring back to life.

Before casting either Raise Dead or Resurrection, the godi must roll a d20. If the roll is higher than the fallen warrior's level, then the intended target of the Raise Dead or Resurrection spell is seen as too valorous and heroic to bring back. He godi will not rob such a hero of this honor and no godi would ever interfere with the valkyries coming to claim a noble warrior.

If the result of the d20 roll is less than the slain warrior's level then the godi will deem the dead of no consequence to the gods at that moment and may bring him back to life.

The godar believe that non-warriors such as magic-users, halflings, common folks, and elves are never claimed by the valkyries, and thus belong to Hel. Bringing these back to life carries its own dilemma. The godi believes that bringing these non-warriors back to life means stealing them from the Courts of Hel.

Before a Raise Dead or Resurrection spell can be performed on non-combatants, the godi must roll under the deceased subjects CHA score. A success means that the godi deems the deceased worth the risk of attracting Hel's attention. The GM may allow a modifier to this roll to reflect any bond of affection the godi might have towards the deceased (like a fellow adventurer).

Rune Spells

Through the use of Rune Spells, along with the appropriate rituals, Godar may access the powers of divine runes. A godi may use the Inscribe Divine Rune spell to place a divine rune upon an object, thus turning a mundane item into a magical item. To properly inscribe the rune, the godi must have learned the rune through a Learn Divine Rune spell and must have performed the appropriate ritual. An Activate Divine Rune spell will activate the inscribed rune.

The following spells (Rune Spells) are used by godar to learn, harness, and master the powers of the 24 divine runes.

Rune Spells are available only to godar, or clerics converted to the worship of the northern pantheon.

When a godi is created, he does not begin play with any runes known. Knowledge of each divine runes must be acquired through play, in one of two ways. The godi may find a fellow godi who knows a rune and is willing to teach the character via the Learn Divine Rune Ritual, or the godi may learn a rune by having an item at the ritual bearing the rune sought already properly inscribed (with the Inscribe Divine Rune spell).

The Northern Godi

Activate Divine Rune (Godi)

Level 2

Range: Touch

Duration: 10 rounds (unless noted otherwise)

This spell allows the godi to activate 1 divine rune that has been inscribed by a godi (either himself or another) with an Inscribe Divine Rune spell. Activate Divine Rune will activate one of the various powers inherent in a divine rune. The specific power invoked must be specified before casting.

Inscribe Divine Rune (Godi)

Level 3

Range: Touch

Duration: Permanent

This spell will allow the godi to inscribe a learned rune upon an object. The rune inscribed must be one that was previously learned by the godi via a Learn Divine Rune spell. In order for this spell to succeed, the godi must perform the appropriate ritual (see below). Once properly inscribed, the rune may be activated with an Activate Divine Rune spell. The maximum number of divine runes the godi may have inscribed at one time is equal to the number of 3rd level spells he may cast. For example, a seventh level godi may have up to a maximum of 2 divine runes inscribed at one time. Inscribing more runes than the permitted limit will result in all runes currently inscribed to lose their magical properties and the current Inscribe Divine Rune ritual is ruined.

Learn Divine Rune (Godi)

Level 3

Range:

Duration: 7 + 1d4 days.

Through this spell the godi may learn one of the 24 divine runes. This spell must be accompanied by the proper ritual (see below) in order to be effective. Each use of this spell results in a permanent loss of 1 hit point.

Runic Divination (Godi)

Level 2

Range: Touch

Duration: Immediate

In order to use this spell, the godi must possess a set of tiles depicting the 24 divine runes. These tiles must be crafted by the godi on material ranging from wood, stone, bone, or any other appropriate material.

After casting this spell while throwing the tiles, the godi interprets the throw in the hope of finding a divine answer to 1 question. This spell's effect is similar to the clerical Commune spell. Unlike the Commune spell, Runic Divination is limited to 1 question, and does not carry the "once per week" limitation that Commune does.

The GM will determine the effects of this spell. It should be noted that the northern gods are a fickle lot, and will most likely tire of constant pleading for answers or overly frequent demands on their time. The godi needs to tread lightly when making such demands for information, lest he angers the gods.

Rituals

The following rituals must be performed to ensure the success of their associated runic spells. Failing to perform the rituals, or failing to perform them successfully, will result in negating the effects of the associated rune spells.

Inscribe Divine Rune Ritual

In order to properly inscribe a divine rune, the tools to be used, the object upon which the rune is to be inscribed, as well as the godi himself, must all be ritually purified before the actual inscription. This purifying ritual takes 2d6 hours to perform. Following the purifying ritual, the godi may proceed with the inscription ritual, dedicating the object being inscribed to the god or gods. This inscription ritual takes 3d8 hours to perform, after which, the Inscribe Divine Rune spell is cast.

Both the purifying and inscription rituals must be uninterrupted. Any disturbance during these rituals will disrupt the ritual and render the Inscribe Divine Rune spell ineffective.

Learn Divine Rune Ritual

This ritual requires either an object with the rune sought properly inscribed or the presence of another godi who already knows the rune sought. A godi or common cleric must also be present to reawaken the rune seeker with Neutralize Poison and Cure Serious Wounds. The Learn Divine Rune Ritual calls for the ceremonial death of the godi wishing to learn the new divine rune. This "death" is brought about with the help of a toxin which will paralyze the victim's mind and body, giving the appearance of death. Once in this death-like state, the godi is placed in a coffin buried alive (some godar will instead be lashed to a tree, or walled into a cave, or any other gruesome fate). This death-like state lasts for 7 + 1d4 days, until the godi is awakened, and results in the permanent loss of 1 hit point. After 8 to 11 days, the victim is awakened with a Neutralize Poison spell to negate the toxin ingested, as well as a Cure Serious Wounds spell. Once reawakened, the godi possesses the knowledge of the rune in question. He may now call on the rune's power through the use of the Inscribe Divine Rune and Activate Divine Rune spells.

The 24 Divine Runes

What follows are the 24 divine runes, along with the descriptions of each rune's powers. Each rune may produce multiple effects and the godi must state which of the effects he wishes to activate when casting an Activate Divine Rune spell.
