

[illegible]

The diagram is a top-down floor plan of the Starship Enterprise, divided into three main horizontal sections. The top section, colored blue, represents the bridge and command area, containing the Captain's Chair, Navigation Console, and various control stations. The middle section, colored yellow, represents the main deck and includes the Access Tunnel, Fuel Tanks, and Cargo Hold. The bottom section, colored red, represents the cargo hold and also includes Fuel Tanks. The plan is detailed with numerous rooms, corridors, and structural elements, all labeled with their respective names.
