Contents

Out, Vile Jelly!

Editorial from Dave Morris.

You're Not in Kansas Anymore

Patrick Brady explains the facts of life to new players.

Behind Enemy Lines

Bob Dushay enters occupied territory. A scenario for pre-generated characters, first run at the 1994 RuneQuest Con.

The Etiquette & Tactics of the Qadarni

A Tsolyáni commander gives his view of how 'Little Wars' ought to be conducted, courtesy of Jack Bramah.

Joyful Sitting Amongst Friends

The colour of moonlight, asking gods for favours, the rights of 'native Téकुmelani', secret police, rats, religion and chocolate. All this and body piercing too.

Different Strokes

Converting new characters from Adventures on Téकुmel to TIRIKELU.

Incomparable Understanding

Mark Widgoer-Daniels conducts an interview with Professor Barker.

The Palace of the Realm

As a follow-up to last Issue's feature on the Palace of the Realm, Mark Wigoder-Daniels casts his eye over some cases vexing the courts this season.

Thusúli Tlamúsun!

Roz Morris knows the way to a man's heart with this classic recipe for Tournedos Rossini.

Just off the Boat

Climb aboard and seek your fortune along with the plucky youths of Falesa Isle. No saving the world for these guys—staying alive is hard enough.

Going Underground

Midnight robbery in the tombs and buried shrines of the underworld. Mark Wigoder-Daniels is your guide.

A Sense of Shame

Here are some tips on trying to get authentic Tsolyáni mind-set into your roleplaying.

Kashtlanmüyal

Just when you thought it was safe to go back into the gaming room, an entire RPG on one page.

The Five Parts of the Self

A spot of Soul searching, as Patrick Brady discusses the subconscious and the unconscious.

In the House of the Rising Sun

The youth of today... our Japan correspondent Paul Mason puts 'em in their place. O tempora! O mores!

Friends in Foreign Parts

Something's rotten in the state of Mu'ugalavyá. A chance for characters to do a spot of detective work.
